MEXICAN HELPERS—Negotiations for the Mexican-Santa Ana game started with this conference in the office of Consul-General de Mexico Adolfo G. Dominguez, left. Others are Guillermo Servin, president of Mexico Civic and Patriotic Committee; Alberto Becerra Sierra, Consul de Mexico; Luis Alvarez, Jr., secretary, and standing, Manuel Esqueda, Santa Ana banker and chairman of Orange County Mexican groups.

FOOTBALL PLANNERS—The International Football Games Committee inaugurated this first Mexico-California game, requiring many meetings. Among the workers were, from left, Sra. Consuela de Castillo de Bonzo of Olvera St.; Arthur Rendon, AIA, director of the Eastside Boys Club; Joe Micciche, president of Downtown Optimist Club, and Dr. Reynaldo Carreon, Jr., chairman and also coordinator for Mexican Independence Days observance.

GAME SPONSORS

HUNDREDS of workers have cooperated in arranging today's international football game, headed by the International Football Games Committee, formed to promote an annual football game each Sept. 16 as the climax to Mexican Independence Days.

Dr. Reynaldo J. Carreon, Jr., of Los Angeles, has served as committee chairman and his professional offices have been the Los Angeles headquarters.

Working with Dr. Carreon on the executive committee have been Ignacio Lozano, Jr., publisher of La Opinion, Los Angeles Spanish daily newspaper; Arthur J. Rendon, architect and member of the Los Angeles City Health Commission; Joe Micciche, president of the Los Angeles Downtown Optimist Club and radio coordinator for the Los Angeles Board of Supervisors; Manuel Esqueda, Santa Ana banker and coordinator of Orange County Mexican groups, and three officials of Santa Ana College, Dean of Men John Johnson, Assistant Director Sky Dunlap, and Business Manager Robert Warner.

A cross-section of prominent Southland citizens worked as committeemen, including Luis E. Alvarez, Jr., president of Club Mexicano de Los Angeles; Gilbert Anaya, CSO, Los Angeles; Sra. Consuelo Castillo de Bonzo, president Mexican Civil Defense Corps; Al Diaz, Belvedere Citizen sports editor; Dr. Jose Diaz, Casa del Mexicano; Ted Paul Ferrer, Civil Defense, Los Angeles; Luis Gaitan, president Pan American Optimist Club; Amado Gallardo, assistant coordinator, Orange County; Julio Gonzales, Police Department public relations, Los Angeles; Michael Grajeda, Santa Ana Gemini Club; George Marakas, Sheriff's Office public relations, Los Angeles; Joe O'Campo, LULAC president, Santa Ana; Felix Ontiveros, president, Mexican Welfare Committee; Bill Schroeder, Managing Director, Helms Athletic Foundation; Guillermo Servin, president, Mexican Civic and Patriotic Committee; Rafael Vega, president, Mexican Chamber of Commerce; Salvador Vela, Manager, Clark Hotel; Armando G. Torrez, president, Eastside Boys' Club; Jose R. Zazueta, East Los Angeles Rotary Club, and Dr. Daniel C. McNaughton, Santa Ana College Director.

YOUTH BENEFITS

Youth groups of Southern California will benefit from this new series of international football games. The sponsors this year designated the Eastside Boys Club of Los Angeles to share in the proceeds as a means of helping this group complete a new clubhouse building. More than 1000 boy members will be honor guests on the north side of the Coliseum, and several other thousand boys will join them for the game.

ENTERTAINMENT

Pre-Game

Pre-game and halftime entertainment for tonight's game is part of the two-day celebration of Mexico Independence Days.

The parade into the Coliseum will be lead by the Baja California Drum and Bugle Corps from Mexicali, brought to Los Angeles by the large delegation of Mexicali and Baja California fans making the trip.

Following in decorated cars will be Angel Carvajal, Mexican Minister of the Interior; Consul-General Adolfo G. Dominguez; Chairman John Anson Ford of the Los Angeles Board of Supervisors; Mayor Norris Poulson of Los Angeles; Mayor Courtney Chandler of Santa Ana; Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz; Rep. Donald L. Jackson; City Councilman Edward R. Roybal; Dr. Daniel C. McNaughton, president of Santa Ana College; Dr. R. J. Carreon, president of the International Football Games Committee; Guillermo Servin, chairman of the Mexican Civic and Patriotic Committee; Mrs. Consuelo C. de Bonzo, program chairman, and others.

The next band will be the Deputy Auxiliary Police Boys Band, conducted by Officer Ralph Kelly. Following will be cars containing Miss Martie Musick, Santa Ana College game hostess; Miss Maria Magdalena Escobedo, Los Angeles Mexican game queen; Miss Roberta Linn, "Miss Football of 1954" and Miss Esperanza Morales, Mexican TV singer.

The Sheriff's Boys' Band, led by Tommy Walker, will follow the cars.

Half-Time

At halftime, Dr. Carreon will be master of ceremonies. Consul-General Dominguez will introduce Minister Carvajal, who will present the President of Mexico trophy for the winner and a Mexican flag to Santa Ana College. Chairman Ford and Mayor Poulson will respond. Another perpetual trophy, from the Helms Athletic Foundation, will be presented by Paul Helms.

Mexican entertainers will perform and then the halftime will close with Miss Linn leading the audience in the Star Spangled Banner, and Miss Morales, leading the singing of Himno Nacional Mexicano, the national anthem being honored on its 100th anniversary.

RIVAL COACHES

DON MENTORS — John Ward, left, and Eddie Eaton are the Santa Ana College coaches, while Bill Cook, right, is Director of Athletics and former Don head coach for 26 years. Ward starred for the University of Southern California at tackle and played on two Rose Bowl teams while Eaton played guard under Red Sanders at UCLA. Cook also is a former Trojan and brought many championships to the Dons, including a Little Rose Bowl assignment in 1949.

SANTA ANA COACHES

John Ward, head coach

John Ward has been on the Santa Ana College coaching staff since 1938 but took over the head coach duties only last year when Bill Cook ended 26 years of coaching to concentrate on duties as director of athletics. Ward attended Santa Ana and Garden Grove high schools, then starred for three years as a tackle at USC on the 1928, 1929 and 1930 teams. He played on the Trojan Rose Bowl teams of 1928 and 1930 against Pittsburgh and Tulane.

He was intercollegiate heavyweight boxing champion of the West Coast while at Troy, and played a season of pro ball with Philadelphia before returning to Garden Grove as head coach. He moved to SAC in 1938 and also coaches track, where his Dons have been conference champions nine times in the last 13 years.

Eddie Eaton was a topranking guard at the University of California at Los Angeles under Red Sanders. Then he coached a year on the UCLA staff before going to Orange Union High School as head coach for a year. He joined Coach Ward at Santa Ana College last season and coached the linemen. He also coaches baseball and wrestling.

Bill Cook, Director of Athletics

After prepping at Anaheim, Bill Cook had a brilliant career as a quarterback and trackman at USC. He came to Santa Ana College from Troy and coached the Dons for 26 years. His teams were national champions in 1940 and 1942, played in the 1949 Little Rose Bowl, and won the conference championship 11 times since 1929, although Santa Ana always has been one of the smallest junior colleges in enrollment. When spring practice was banned this year, Bill coached an aggressive rugby team. He also coaches golf.

THUMBNAIL SKETCHES OF MEXICO CITY POLY PLAYERS

HUMBERTO AREIZAGA, Fullback. First string Fullback and our hardest runner last year. His average per try throughout the season was 9.1 yd. A very good passer, fair punter and explosive blocker. This will be his second year with the team.

RAMIRO MEDINA, Halfback. A broken field runner and one of our team's best backs.

EDUARDO RIVERA, Left tackle. Biggest man on the squad. Weighs 230 pounds and covers the right tackle position. Has been with the team for two years.

HECTOR CONTRERAS, Quarterback. First string QB. Fair passer and smooth ball-handler. This will be his third year with the team.

EDUARDO TAPIA, Halfback. Team's regular punter and a reliable back. A steady performer.

PODOLFO PEREZ, Fullback. Did not see very much action last year because of a knee injury. A fair runner and sharp passer.

JORGE BERMUDEZ, Fullback. Hard runner and passer.

HERIBERTO MIRANDA, Center. Second string center. Good blocker. This will be his second year with the team.

GUILLERMO OLAZCOAGA, Fullback. Second string Fullback and the team's best passer.

BENITO VELAZQUEZ, Halfback. Third string right halfback.

RAUL AZCUE, Right end. Second string right end. Rough blocker and fair pass catcher.

MIGUEL INIGUER, Second string halfback. A good punter and Mexico's School Boy 220 Yd. high hurdle champion.

GAME STORIES

MEXICO CITY POLY

HEAD Coach Uriel Gonzales is starting his second year as head coach for Politecnico and operates on a split T system.

His last season resulted in six victories and three losses against tough opposition at home and on the international front. Games won were with Centro Universitario Mexico, Escuela Normal de Maestros, Pentathlon Militar Universitario, Mexico City College, Henderson Junior College from Athens, Texas; and San Bernardino Valley College. Games lost were to Sul Ross State College from Alpine, Texas, Lamar College from Texas, and Shepard Air Force Base from Texas.

The White Burros won their first 1954 game against Mexico City College, 13 to 0, before 25,000 fans in a drenching rain.

One of several explosive Politecnico players with good experience is Humberto Arcizaga, a fullback who averages nine yards every time he carries the ball. He was Mexico's hardest runner last year, a good passer, fair punter and excellent blocker. He is playing his second year.

Another top player is Hector Contreras, first string quarterback playing his third year. He is a fair passer and smooth ball-handler.

Eduardo Rivera, a 230-pound tackle, is the biggest man on the squad and starting his third year. Broken field running is the specialty of Ramiro "Tigre" Medina, right halfback, the team's punt return specialist and excellent defensive player, playing his last year. Halfback Eduardo Tapia does most of the punting and is a dependable ball carrier and blocker.

Antonio Azcue, starting at left tackle, is powerful and fast, with still another year of eligibility. The other starting tackle is Fernando Mendiola, an aggressive guard the last two years but moved to tackle for 1954. Miguel Iniguere is a punting halfback who was Mexico's Schoolboy high hurdle champion. The starting guards, Juan Cedillo and Gustave Ruiz, are on the small side but pack a wallop, both playing their last season.

SANTA ANA COLLEGE

WITH a squad big enough to field six teams, Coach John Ward faces the difficult task of screening out his starting lineup in 15 days of practice. The Dons are heavier and faster than last year, with a dozen veterans returning.

An offensive sparkplug will be Leonard Zelinka, fleet halfback from Fairfax High and Camp Pendleton, a brother of ex-Don and ex-Bruin Bob Zelinka. George Gumbrecht, a New Yorker who sparkled in rugby, is another experienced ball-handler. Charley Neal is the best of the lettermen ball-packers.

Among the frosh prospects are Les Grayson, most valuable player and all-league half-back from Excelsior; John McFaddin and Lloyd Foster, alternating T-quarterbacks at Santa Ana High; Don Doty, another Saint and Ron Adel, 190-pound fullback from last year.

El Toro Marine Base contributed three top linemen, 220-pound Les Cates, tackle; 6-4 Jerry Sullivan, end, and Rod Hurich, 205-pound guard-center.

Tom Berg, who played guard in the recent all-CIF game at San Diego and followed his brother Dan from Anaheim High to Santa Ana; Tony Rivas, all-Orange league guard from Tustin; Letterman Darrell Cooney, top a flock of guards.

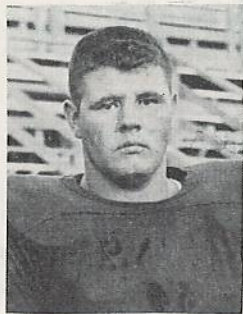

Captain John Linquist will start at center, backed by Ronaldo Rodriguez and Bob Coffman, Santa Ana; Bob Halahan, Mater Dei of Santa Ana, and Ed Lawler of Mt. Carmel.

Chuck Lyons and Chuck Forbes are formidable tackles from last year; Juan Gonzales of Santa Ana, 250, and Bob Gregg, 243, from Valencia, are the heaviest pair; Don Gedney, second all-Orange league from Garden Grove and Jerry Boren, 215-pound Anaheim star, are strong tackle candidates.

Ward is well fixed at end, with Bob Lacy, Bill Via and Bill Doherty from last year; Keith Diefenderfer, Jack and Jay Roper of Orange; Richard Woody, 6-3 and 205, plus Sullivan and some others.

GROWING CAMPUS —

Dr. Daniel C. McNaughton, who has headed Santa Ana College since 1949, uses scale model of campus to show where three major buildings will be finished by early 1955. Work has started on the 2400-seat gymnasium and two-story science building, with the auditorium soon to start.

SANTA ANA COLLEGE

The honor of playing the first college game of 1954 in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is one of the highlights of the 40th anniversary year at Santa Ana College.

The two-year junior college was established in 1915 as an upward extension of Santa Ana High School. It became a separate institution in 1922 when a Junior College District was formed, although it remained on the high school campus.

Following the earthquake in 1933 which destroyed the buildings occupied by the college at the high school, a temporary campus was obtained at 10th and Main Sts., near the business district. In August, 1947, the college again moved into temporary buildings on the spacious new campus at 17th and Bristol streets while permanent buildings were being constructed.

The new buildings were ready in 1948 and the college presently is undergoing an expansion building program of nearly a million dollars. Well-started is a 2400-seat gymnasium and a two-story science building, while plans are nearly finished for an auditorium-music-speech building.

The 50-acre campus includes one of the finest running tracks in the Southland, a factor in the perennial winning of track and field championships.

While Santa Ana has long been one of the smaller junior colleges, its athletic reputation is long standing for top teams. Coach Ward's track team is defending conference champion and has been the titleholder nine of the last 13 years.

Expansion of the campus also brought a sharp enrollment increase this week.
